

$M = 16$  (density 0.250) $M = 64$  (density 1/16)

Same coverage with different quality, different coverage with the same quality: the discriminating quantity is  $\tau$ , not  $C$ .

At  $M = 64$  butterfly leads despite HALF the coverage of ring --- it is the only pattern that completes its mixing.