

$M = 16$ (density 0.250) $M = 64$ (density 1/16)

Same coverage with different quality, different coverage with the same quality: the discriminating quantity is τ , not C .

At $M = 64$ butterfly leads despite HALF the coverage of ring --- it is the only pattern that completes its mixing.